Fruit D ? Presumed scrapped on site at Dudmaston Saw Mill, Quatt, near Bridgenorth c2013

NB – Seemingly both Fruit D bodies at Dudmaston Saw Mill were scrapped following closure of the Saw Mill c2012 and the part of the site where they were located was taken over by Bridgenorth Storage.

Fruit D ? Broken up on site at The Holt (National Trust Car Park), Quatt, near Bridgenorth c2010

NB – Two bodies were recorded in Amendment Sheet 85 as being at this location which is now the National Trust public car park. The other one is still present.

5) Corrections to 'Amendment Sheet 105'

In section 6(a)i) the OS Grid Reference for the two Fruit D bodies at Dudmaston Saw Mill should read SQ 756889 not SU 756889.

6) Corrections to 'Amendment Sheet 126'

In section 6(a)i) the disappearance of the Fruit D body from New Farm, Lacock, near Corsham was mentioned and it was presumed that it had been scrapped. It is now known that it wasn't scrapped but was moved under cover for restoration in a barn nearby, although the exact location of this is not known. Thus, it should not be considered as a deletion. Further information about its precise current location and restoration would be welcomed.
