GORDON DAVIES

Society Chairman Gordon Davies will be going in to hospital on Tuesday 18th April for a major operation. He is expected to stay in for about a week that will be followed up by six weeks of recuperation. Therefore can all members and officers please refrain from phoning him before the end of June. And bear in mind he will be somewhat slower than usual to answer letters and emails.

The current Deputy Chairman David Pick will not be available to stand in for Gordon at the AGM so we welcome back the previous Chairman John Redgate who will be taking over the regulator during this period.

Please join me wishing Gordon well during this period and that this major overhaul will soon have him firing on all cylinders.
